

SCOOP WILL LIVE TO HUNT HORSE THIEVES ANOTHER DAY

GAME WON IN THIRTEENTH INNING

Unable to stand up longer under the strain, Ogden faltered in the thirteenth inning of a clouting bee with Helena yesterday afternoon and Helena came out ahead. The score was 10 to 8.

Only a handful of fans saw the game, which was exciting throughout for the reason that the result was in doubt until the last man went to bat.

Both teams took turns as leaders in the scoring. Ogden tied things up in the fourth and secured a lead of three runs which was cut down by five runs put over the plate by Helena in the seventh. Ogden secured a one-run lead again in the eighth by scoring three men, but Helena tied a knot in the next inning and then neither side scored until the thirteenth.

Three pitchers were used by the visitors. Williams opened strong. He had lots of stuff and his curves look dangerous. In a short time however, he was sized up by the batsmen and a number of singles and passes were sufficient to bench him. Fowler, formerly of Ogden went in, but he found himself in such a hole from the start that he was discouraged. After walking one man and Moorehead had reached first on Cronin's boot, Jones was also walked, congesting the bases. Fowler gave Wessler a pass which forced in Loomis. Sullivan replaced Fowler and he walked Risberg forcing in another run. After that, however, he settled down and pitched good ball.

Sinclair pitched the entire thirteenth inning for Ogden and should have won his game. He had poor support at critical moments and the Ogden swatters were also up to their old tricks of failing to hit in pinches. Murray made two sensational catches at saved the game from going to Helena earlier in the extra innings. Woomlums also made a wonderful stop of a grounder from Spencer.

Jones and Williams sent out home runs. Williams surprised the fans by sending one over the centerfield fence. Jones hit one over the right field fence, but the ball hit a tree and bounced back into the field. The umpire sent him into home nevertheless, as the ground rules provide for just such a situation.

Spencer narrowly missed sending a home run over the right fence in the eleventh inning. He lifted the first ball offered him in the air on a line with the foul line. As it passed over the fence it was but a few inches on the wrong side of the line.

Because of the excellent brand of ball that was offered after the ninth inning, it looked as though the game was to be an all-night affair. The blowup occurred in the thirteenth after Ogden failed to do much in the preceding extra innings. Sinclair weakened and walked Crittenden. Sullivan beat out a bunt, and Spencer singled, filling the sacks. Cronin bunted, but Crittenden was slammed out at home. Perkins threw the ball to Lewis at first and that gentleman dropped it, permitting Sullivan to come home. A double steel caught Ogden unable to cope with the situation and Spencer scored.

Ballinger, Woomlums and Moorehead went out in one-two-three order in Ogden's last opportunity to win the game.

ELECTRICS TRIM SKYSCRAPERS

Salt Lake, July 30.—Salt Lake lost the second game of the present series to Great Falls yesterday, 7 to 4, owing to its inability to connect safely with Pitcher Duffy as the Electricists did with Erickson and Dressan. Duffy pitched a far better game of ball than the score would indicate. Salt Lake's four runs were as much contributable to Great Falls' errors as they were to Salt Lake's hits. Erickson again volunteered to take the rubber, but it was necessary to deride him early in the game. Leo Dressan, who succeeded him, appeared to lose his nerve when his teammates kicked a few behind him and he, too, was easy prey for the visitors. Umpire La Roque, not intentionally, assisted the Electricists also in several of his decisions.

Notwithstanding the errors of the Great Falls team, Hester's men flied brilliantly.

BASEBALL

Philadelphia 2, St. Louis 1.

Philadelphia, July 30.—Two base hits and sacrifices played a big part in the victory of Philadelphia over St. Louis by two runs to one here today. Bush and Wellman were very effective and had excellent control. A two-bagger by Schang, Bush's out and Oldring's single gave Philadelphia a run in the third inning while Danny Murphy's double, Barry's sacrifice hit, and Schang's sacrifice fly, produced the winning tally in the fifth. St. Louis scored in the sixth for the visitors on his single and Pratt's triple. The game was barren of extraordinary fielding.

Yankees Shut Out White Sox.

New York, July 30.—Fisher bested Russell in a pitchers battle today and New York shut out Chicago 3 to 0. Russell, after holding the home club to one hit in the first six innings, weakened in the seventh and New York scored two runs. Daniel's best out a bunt with one out. On the hit and run, Peckinpaugh doubled, scoring Daniels. Cree drove in Peckinpaugh with a long triple, but the batter was thrown out trying to stretch his hit into a home run. New York scored again in the eighth on Midkiff's double, Sweeney's sacrifice and an error by Russell, who muffed an easy throw from Rapp, after Fisher had flied to that player.

Cardinals Beat Braves.

St. Louis, July 30.—St. Louis with a changed line-up came to the front this afternoon and won from Boston 9 to 1. The locals ran the bases in great form and worked the squeeze play successfully twice. Bunched hits mixed with errors in the first, fourth and fifth innings, netted St. Louis seven runs. In the second inning two runs were scored without a hit. Wingo walked and stole second and stole third. Mowrey also was passed and when he advanced Mowrey who tallied when Huggins laid down a perfect bunt for the squeeze play. Smith's single and a two base hit by Sweeney saved the visitors from a shut-out. Manager Huggins officially did not bat, being passed twice and sacrificing as many times in his four trips to the plate.

Giants Shut Out.

Chicago, July 30.—Larry Cheney proved a stumbling block for New York today, when his almost invincible pitching, with gilt-edged support checked the league leaders in their march toward the pennant. The score was 5 to 0 in favor of Chicago. Big Jeff Tesreau, was on the mound for the visitors, and although he pitched a creditable game, his support was very ragged and shaky in spots. Murray, Fletcher, Shafer and Merkle saved Tesreau on several occasions, but the locals took advantage of each misplay and hit opportunely. Cheney allowed McGraw's men but

PLAIN CITY WINS FROM BRIGAMITES

Yesterday afternoon the Plain City baseball team played the Brigamites at Lagoon. The Weber county boys swatted the sphere shamefully, but notwithstanding the Peach boys were generally under the ball when it descended from the "clear blue" with the result that the close score of 4 to 3 was recorded at the end of ten innings in favor of Plain City.

Many amusing features characterized the game. Ed. Stoker and Tom Singleton were really responsible for Plain City's victory. Tom "holled" "Go get 'em boys" for two solid hours and at the end of said period when the winning run came over the plate for the Beet Growers Tom couldn't whisper loud enough to make himself understood and the center at Lagoon served him the amber fluid instead of grape juice.

Ed. Stoker was there with a brand new life-size megaphone, and yelled through it until he blew the end out, when he used the remains in an attempt to wreck the stand-pipe of the Lagoon waterworks.

The rooting of the Weber county fans was a revelation to the few easterners on the grounds, and they concluded that a big league game in the east was a rather quiet affair when compared with the enthusiastic support given the western experts of the national pastime.

Both teams played real ball, and were evenly matched, giving one of the best exhibitions ever witnessed at the Lagoon.

The lineup:

Plain City	Brigamites

Singleton	Keller

Poulson	2b. Barber
Draney	3b. Fosgren

Plain City..... 4 1 1 1

The valley of Chamonix has Mont Blanc; but it does not need it, for it has beauty enough of its own. The fields, the swift, running waters of the River Arve, the huge rivers of ice that flow down into the valleys, and the everlasting snows that cap the summit of Mont Blanc itself, have made Chamonix one of the most popular of all mountain resorts.

The valley of Chamonix runs from northeast to southwest and is watered by the Arve, which rises in the Mer de Glace, Chamonix, the village, 3,445 feet above the sea, is visited annually by thousands of tourists, as it is the best starting point for the exploration of the glaciers of the Mont Blanc chain, as well as for the ascent of Mont Blanc itself.

Mont Blanc dominates the valley of Chamonix. It is 15,779 feet high, and its summit is always covered with snow. Jacques Balmat, a guide, first conquered this peak in 1786. De Saussure, the great Swiss scientist, in 1781 had promised a large reward to the man who found a practicable route to the top. During the twenty-odd years that followed many vain attempts to win this reward were made. But it was not until 1786 that young Jacques Balmat, who had been born a year after De Saussure made his offer, succeeded in climbing the mountain. The ascent has been made many times since, and in 1893 Dr. Janssen built an observatory on the summit.

Many of the greatest poets and prose writers have told of the feeling of awe inspired in their breasts by Mont Blanc in its majesty—Goethe, Victor Hugo, Byron, Shelley, Wordsworth. But perhaps Coleridge has expressed this feeling the best in his "Hymn Before Sunrise in the Vale of Chamouni":

"Who made you glorious as the gates of heaven Beneath the keen full moon? Who had the sun
Clothe you with rainbows? Who with living flowers
Of loveliest blue, spread garlands at your feet?
God!—let the torrents like a shout of nation,
Answer! and let the ice-plains echo,
God!"

Chamonix has long been well known as a place to visit in the summer, but it is just beginning to become known as a winter resort. In winter there is fine skating, skiing, tobogganing, and bob sledding. There are two skating clubs of Paris whose headquarters are at Chamonix in the winter, and some of the most expert skating in the world is done there.
